New Partners and Counsel – 2017

9 May 2017

Chandler MHM Limited is pleased to announce the appointment of two new partners and one new Counsel effective from 1 May 2017. Khun Jutharat Anuktanakul and Khun Foifa Tharaphan have been promoted to partner, and Khun Nirawan Parkpeeranun has been promoted to Counsel. During their time with our firm, Nirawan since 2007, and Jutharat and Foifa since 1999, all three lawyers have demonstrated exceptional legal expertise, dedication to clients and the highest professional standards.

Nirawan Parkpeeranun is a Counsel in the Mergers & Acquisitions practice group. She has extensive experience in negotiating commercial agreements and handling M&A transactions in a variety of business sectors, including: petrochemicals, airlines, logistics, pharmaceuticals, and energy and natural resources. She also advises on digital and IT-related law, maritime law, and the restructuring of state enterprises. Nirawan is a member of the Lawyers Council of Thailand, and is an Extraordinary Member of the Thai Bar Association. She holds an LL.B. degree (with Honors), and an LL.M. degree in Business Law from Chulalongkorn University, and a Certificate in Intellectual Property Law, and a Graduate Diploma in Taxation Law, from the Thai Bar Institute of Legal Education, and an LL.M. degree in Maritime Law from University of Southampton School of Law in the United Kingdom.

Jutharat Anuktanakul is a partner in the Corporate practice group. She has advised clients on-site in Myanmar and Thailand. In Myanmar she assisted foreign companies with incorporation formalities, working closely with the Myanmar Investment Commission (“MIC”), and provided due diligence on Foreign Direct Investment (“FDI”) projects. In Thailand she represents Thai and international clients on Board of Investment (“BOI”) and Industrial Estate Authority of Thailand (“IEAT”) applications, in addition to advising on share or asset acquisitions, business transfer transactions, and a broad range of government registrations. Jutharat is a member of the Lawyers Council of Thailand, and is an Extraordinary Member of the Thai Bar Association. She holds an LL.B. degree and a Diploma in Business Law from Thammasat University, and an LL.M. degree from the SMU Dedman School of Law in the US.

Foifa Tharaphan is a partner in the Banking & Finance practice group. She specializes in advising offshore investors, banks and lending institutions on a broad range of investment activities in Thailand and nearby countries, including taking of security interest over assets, properties, and in project financing. She is recognized for her expertise in energy and natural resources projects, with a focus on the rapidly evolving renewable energy sector. Foifa is a member of the Lawyers Council of Thailand; an Extraordinary Member of the Thai Bar Association; a member of the International Bar Association, and is registered as a Notarial Services Attorney and as a security enforcer under the Secured Transactions Law. She holds an LL.B. degree (with 2nd Class Honors) from Thammasat University, and an LL.M. degree from Boston University (Banking and Financial Law) in the US.
