Client Alert: Thailand's Amendments to the CCC and Relevant Offenses in 2022

On 8 November 2022, the amendments to the Thai Civil and Commercial Code ("CCC") and the Act Prescribing Offenses Relating Business Organizations were published in the Government Gazette.

Both above amendments will come into effect on 7 February 2023, being the lapse of 90 days from the date following the publication date.

The Act on Amendments to the CCC

The Act on Amendments to the CCC has been published in the Government Gazette with no change in provisions in the final draft legislation from which was earlier discussed in our previous newsletter (please click HERE for more information).

The Amendments to the Act Prescribing Offenses relating Business Organizations

The Act on Offenses Concerning Registered Partnerships, Limited Partnerships, Limited Companies, Associations and Foundations (No.5), B.E. 2565 (A.D. 2022) was also enacted in order to amend the previous provisions to be in line with the amended CCC without adjusting penalty severity.
